Graded Course Activities

Course assignments, homework and expectations are clearly labeled in the Course Schedule.

Visit the Assignments (Learning Modules) link in Blackboard for details about each assignment.

Assessments will only be offered during class time/module time online, with no makeups. All assessment dates are listed on the course schedule. Assessments for online courses will be explained and accessed through Blackboard.

There are no make-ups for missing due dates in Blackboard or in Class.

Late Work Policy

* Be sure to pay close attention to deadlines listed in the course schedule and mentioned in class—there will be no make up assignments or make up quizzes or exams, or late work accepted. College Classes are about daily practice and success in this class. To succeed a student requires daily practice and hours outside of class for reading, assignments, homework and projects. Therefore, expect to spend about 9 – 10 hours per week completing homework, making corrections and studying for class! Plan for it.

Two hours daily, with a day in the week off. College is a daily commitment, with planning. Plan and you can and will succeed!

Viewing Grades in My SPC Blackboard

Points you receive for graded activities and assessments will be posted to the MY SPC Blackboard Grade Book. Click on the My Grades link on the left navigation to view your points. Grades are your mark for earned work and achievement. They are not to be shared in public.

Your instructor will update the online grades each time a grading session has been complete—typically 7 days following the completion of an activity. You will see a visual indication of new grades posted on your Blackboard home page under the link to this course.

Letter Grade Assignment

*This course has 5800 gradebook points total.*

Currently the Blackboard Course has 4000 gradebook points, but The Excel Certification Prep will be an additional 1800 gradebook points added through Weekly Discussion Boards and Activities. Attendance will be counted through Discussion Board and Blackboard weekly participation, as well as assignment completion.

Attendance and Class Participation are worth a total of 300 gradebook points each.

Please note about Exam Time. Exams will begin promptly at the beginning of class time (in face to face classes). When the exam begins, the door will be closed. Students are not admitted to a test late. A late arrival disrupts the testing environment for all students. Being late for an exam equals missing that exam, and a grade of zero will be earned. Exams in the Online Classroom environment will have the Modular weekly deadlines.

Final grades assigned for this course will be based on the percentage of total points earned and are assigned as follows:

Assignment	Topic	Points Possible	Points Earned

Part 5: Course Policies

Attend Class

Students are expected to attend all class sessions as listed on the course schedule. (Traditional Class, Blended Class and Online Class)
 A student may be administratively withdrawn from the course when absences become excessive. Excessive absences mean: 3 or more absences. A student who does not meet the attendance requirements of a class as stated in the course syllabus and does not officially withdraw from that course by the official census date of the semester, may be administratively withdrawn from that course and receive a grade of "X" or "F" as determined by the instructor.

When an unavoidable reason for class absence arises, such as illness, an official trip authorized by the college or an official activity, the instructor may permit the student to make up work missed. It is the student's responsibility to NOTIFY THE INSTRUCTOR of the situation prior to the absence. Then it is the student's responsibility to complete work missed within a reasonable period as determined by the instructor.

Students are officially enrolled in all courses for which they pay tuition and fees at the time of registration. Should a student, for any reason, delay in reporting to a class after official enrollment, absences will be attributed to the student from the first class meeting. Students who enroll in a course, but have "Never Attended" by the official census date, [12th class date] as reported by the faculty member, will be administratively dropped by the Office of Admissions and Records.

It is the student's responsibility to verify administrative drops for excessive absences through MySPC using his or her student online account.

If it is determined that a student is awarded financial aid for a class or classes in which the student never attended or participated, the financial aid award will be adjusted in accordance with the classes in which the student did attend/participate and the student will owe any balance resulting from the adjustment

- * Attendance and Participation are worth 300 gradebook points

Special Note about Attendance: Defining Absent, Tardy and Late for this course. (See below)

Attendance (Absent, Tardy, Late)

As your instructor, I have discovered that attendance at the beginning of the class session significantly affects success in this course, or any college course.

Because arriving to class on time is an important part of this college course, your Instructor will take attendance daily. Except for documented emergencies, you will lose a point off your class-participation grade for each absence. There are no make-up classes. You are required to come to class on time. If you are not present at the beginning of class or at the time attendance is called, you will be marked absent. (Absent = Tardy = No Attendance and No Participation for the Day).

After three absences or tardiness or a combination of (Absences and Tardies), your Instructor can drop you from the course with a grade of X or F.

Online Attendance (Absent = Tardy = Late = Missing Assignment = No Sign ins)

Participate

*Attendance is worth 150 gradebook points and checked at the beginning of each class period, and weekly for log ins to Blackboard.

*Participation is worth 150 gradebook points and will be assessed each day by the student's contributing to the class discussion, completing class activities, and class time interactions. (In class or In Blackboard)

Build Rapport

If you find that you have any trouble keeping up with assignments or other aspects of the course, make sure you let your instructor know as early as possible. As you will find, building rapport and effective relationships are key to becoming an effective professional. Make sure that you are proactive in informing your instructor when difficulties arise during the semester so that they can help you find a solution.

Please do not wait! Reach out text or call 806-438-8066 and I can help. We can discuss a problem over the phone, in text with video chat or live online through your computer. So stay on top, stay ahead and ask questions when you need to!

Complete Assignments

This class has quizzes over the reading materials, simulated activities teaching the objectives, Capstone Grader projects over the weekly module assignments, discussion board with activities preparing students for the Excel Certification exam as well as a final course project.

Reading and Simulation Assignments: Weekly reading of the course textbook and completion of simulation and capstone assignments inside Blackboard and My IT Lab are expected for success. This class covers the textbook and My Lab Assignments, but weekly preparation prior to class time is expected for success.

All assignments for this course must be submitted on time. Assignments must be submitted by the given deadline or special permission must be requested from instructor before the due date. Extensions will not be given beyond the next assignment, except under extreme circumstances (approved only by the instructor).

All discussion board assignments must be completed by the assignment due date and time. Late or missing discussion board assignments will affect the student's grade.

Classroom Expectations: All students are expected to be prepared for class time. Disruptive or unprofessional behavior in class is grounds for a student to be removed and dropped from class without notice. Three tardiness counts or three absent class periods is grounds for a student to be dropped from the course. Students can refer to the South Plains College Student Guide for more information about policies and procedures of South Plains College. <https://www.southplainscollege.edu/information-for/future-spcstudents/onlinepubs.php>

Exams: Exam time during class time is a schedule period in which students are tested on their knowledge achievements. It is vital that all students attend exam periods on time and come prepared. It is essential that all students are provided with a fair, quiet testing environment conducive for success. It is the policy of this instructor to close the door at class time during exam day. Students will not be allowed into class late, nor or their make-up exam opportunities. A student missing an exam, will earn the grade of Zero in the gradebook. Online exams will be open during Module weekly deadline period.

Understand When You May Drop This Course

It is the student's responsibility to understand when they need to consider withdrawing from a course. Refer to the South Plains College Website for dates and deadlines for registration.

SPRING 2018 : April 26 last day to drop a spring course.
