CLASS TIME: 7:30-9:20 PM Tuesday
CLASSROOM: LBC 121

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course covers promulgated contract forms, which shall include but is not limited to unauthorized practice of law, broker-lawyer committee, current promulgated forms, commission rules regarding use of forms and case studies involving use of forms.

COURSE OBJECTIVES: Describe the Broker-Lawyer committee, including composition and purpose; demonstrate that a given action or statement constitutes the unauthorized practice of law and state penalties for such; compare and contrast promulgated and approved forms; assess if the use of the form is within the Texas Real Estate Commission rules for use of forms; correct forms for given scenarios; and correctly identify and fill in forms for a given scenario.

TEXTBOOKS AND MATERIALS: Students will need a copy of the Texas Promulgated Forms, 3rd Edition Update and Supplement Set. ISBN: 978-1-4754-63781. Please verify that the books purchased are the two-book set. Students will also need internet access to the Texas Real Estate Commission web page to find and print the newest versions of needed forms.

GRADING: Grading will strictly be based on participation in online blackboard platform videos. Students are expected to watch the pre-recorded lecture series and follow along with contract templates as used in the videos. While most likely the easiest of the real estate classes and certainly the class requiring the least amount of work out of class, this class is by far the most imperative once you begin your career.

EXAMINATION POLICY: There will be no examinations in this class we will only focus on contract templates and documents required for the student to transition successfully into a full time selling career.

ASSIGNMENTS: Students are expected to attend class having previously read the assigned chapters and having completed all of the required assignments including watching the pre-recorded online lectures. Students should be prepared to discuss the readings assigned.

ATTENDANCE: Attendance will not be counted in class. Although attendance will not be utilized in grading or for academic counting purposes students will benefit most from in class questions and discussions.

EXTRA CREDIT: LOL

CLASSROOM ETIQUETTE: Real Estate agents will want to conduct themselves in a professional capacity once in the work force. Reputation and client service are the key to success in this business. Thus, classroom interactions will require the same level of professionalism, if not more. Classroom discussion is highly encouraged and a requirement for participation. That being said, respect for the opinions and views of others is imperative. Disruptive or unprofessional behavior in class is grounds for a student to be removed from the classroom and dropped from the course without notice.

CELL PHONES: Cell phones must be muted during all classroom interaction. Texting during class is prohibited. Violation of this policy may result in the student being removed from the classroom and dropped from the course.

COMPUTERS: Laptop computers may not be used during class. If the need arises, for computer use, the instructor will notify you in advance.

4.1.1.1. Diversity Statement

In this class, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.

4.1.1.2. Disabilities Statement

Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office. For more information, call or visit the Disability Services Office at Levelland (Student Health & Wellness Office) 806-716-2577, Reese Center (Building 8) 806-716-4675, or Plainview Center (Main Office) 806-716-4302 or 806-296-9611.

4.1.1.3 Non-Discrimination Statement

South Plains College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability or age in its programs and activities. The following person has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the non-discrimination policies: Vice President for Student Affairs, South Plains College, 1401 College Avenue, Box 5, Levelland, TX 79336.
